

You are invited to be part of research being conducted to help explore the factors relating to teacher use of educational technology in the K-8 classroom. As a teacher in a general education K-8 setting, your responses are important, and your participation is helpful in completing the research. Your participation is completely voluntary, and you may resign the study at any time.

By choosing to participate in this research project, you will complete an online Likert formatted survey instrument consisting of 26 items. It should take approximately 15 minutes of your time (click on the link below). You are asked to complete the instrument within 24 hours of receiving this email. At this time there are no known risks based on the participation in this research study. All submissions are anonymous.

If you have any questions pertaining to this research, please contact Melody Strange at mstrange0415@lions.piedmont.edu. You may also contact Dr. Lynn Rambo (lrambo@piedmont.edu) with questions or concerns about your rights as a participant in this study or Dr. Cynthia Vance (cvance@piedmont.edu) with Piedmont College's Institutional Review Board.

Sincerely,

Melody Strange
Researcher

NOTE: If you decide not to participate after the online survey is started, you may withdraw simply by closing the internet browser window. Once the survey research instrument is completed and submitted, you cannot withdraw due to the anonymous format. Individual data remains unidentifiable due to anonymous formatting of the research instrument. Information and data obtained from this online survey will be used in the completion of a doctoral dissertation.
